Update #2:

The US Capitol was cleared and Congress reconvened and certified the election results at 2000 ET on January 6. Officials reported four deaths and 52 arrests related to the protests. 14 law enforcement officers reported injuries. The Mayor of DC has declared a state of emergency until 1500 ET on January 21. This incident is now closed.

Update #1:

There has been one death as a result of the shooting inside the Capitol Building. The Maryland and Virginia State Troopers have been called in for additional law enforcement support. The Maryland and Virginia National Guard have been activated to assist law enforcement in restoring order. The Mayor of DC's instituted curfew of 6 pm to 6 am is currently in effect. The EOC will continue to monitor this situation and provide updates as information becomes available.

Original Information:

The EOC received notification of a protest in the United States Capitol Building (non GSA owned) located at First Street Southeast, Washington, DC. The Capitol Building is now under lockdown after protesters breached barricades to the grounds. Demonstrators have advanced their way inside the building. The Vice President and members of both the Senate and House of Representatives have been evacuated. The US Capitol police are striving to get the situation under control and FPS and the US Secret Service are being deployed. One person was shot inside the building and several others have been injured. In response, the Mayor's office has instituted a 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew in the District of Columbia and activated the entire DC National Guard. The EOC will continue to monitor this situation and provide updates as information becomes available.

Good afternoon Executive Editors,

My name is Avery Collins and I am from the Office of Strategic Communication. We are overseeing the update of GSA's digital presence to reflect the upcoming administration change.

Over the next two weeks, you will receive reminders from me to prepare web content to go live on January 20th at 12pm EST. During this time, please ensure that content owners and editors review and edit their pages. Instruct them to:

Identify website content that reflects or references the outgoing administration.

altogether.

Update all references to Administrator Murphy to Former Administrator Murphy or remove the reference altogether.

Update all references to political appointees to include “former” in front of their title (i.e. Former FAS Commissioner Julie Dunne) or remove the reference altogether.

Update leadership pages, lists of political appointees, and biographies of political appointees.

Archive outgoing political appointees’ leadership bios. Replace with the incoming acting leader.

Update contact information on web pages.

Any reference to the outgoing administration that is part of a news article or blog post does not need to be changed.

All changes should be done in accordance with the web records schedule for the website you are working on. See the GSA.gov schedule on our Web Records page.

Changes should not be published until January 20th at 12 pm EST. Since that is a federal holiday, please publish the changes by January 21st at 12 pm EST. After ensuring that the organization's content has been changed, please email to inform me. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

FITARA Dashboard

The FITARA 1.0 scores are in— how did your agency perform? While more agencies saw declines in scores than improving scores, the agencies that made gains in the latest version of the FITARA scorecard have two things in common— they improved their scores on the Data Center Optimization Initiative (DCOI) metric, and scored an “A” on the new Enterprise Infrastructure Solutions (EIS) metric. To learn more and better understand the scores, view the interactive FITARA Dashboard.

Status as of 3:49 pm: Ongoing

Good Afternoon,

The EOC received notification of a protest in the United States Capitol Building (Owned) located at First Street Southeast, Washington, DC. The Capitol Building is now under lockdown after protesters breached barricades to the grounds. Demonstrators have advanced their way inside the building. The Vice President and members of both the Senate and House of Representatives have been evacuated. The US Capitol police are striving to get the situation under control and FPS and the US Secret Service are being deployed. One person was shot inside the building and several others have been injured. In response, the Mayor's office has issued a curfew from 6 am to 6 pm in the District of Columbia and activated the entire DC National Guard. The EOC will continue to monitor this situation and provide updates as information becomes available.

Thank you,
